

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON
PENDLETON DIVISION

RAFAEL HERNANDEZ,

Plaintiff,

v.

TYLER BLEWETT, et al,

Defendants.

Civ. No. 2:20-cv-01996-AA

OPINION AND ORDER

AIKEN, District Judge:

This case involves plaintiff's claims that he received constitutionally inadequate medical care while in custody. The Court held a mediation between the parties on January 9, 2024. The parties are coordinating ongoing medical care for plaintiff. Mediation will resume after plaintiff's surgery. The United States District Court for the District of Oregon shall retain jurisdiction over this case and while plaintiff is receiving medical care—care which is material to resolving this lawsuit. Accordingly, the Court ORDERS that plaintiff remain in the District of Oregon and made available for all further proceedings until otherwise ordered.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 9th day of January 2024.
